Everyone will be inclined to think with the Go-VERNOROR this point. But the question arises, course of the law in a case like the present. Any valid legal objection to the conviction the prisoner would of course, as a matter of right, be entitled to take advantage of, but there is, so far as the public are aware, no legal flaw in the conviction of Cheung Ashin. He had all the advantages he was by law piece. It was well received by the audience, sion the prisoner was given, as a matter of course, entitled to. The Government had, it is true, who evidently thoroughly appreciated the efforts some refreshments. TRIAL OF PERSONS ACCUSED OF MURDER.

The following Minute by His Excellency the Governor appears in Saturday's Gazette :-1.—In connection with the trial last year two Europeans accused of murder, when the Court assigned both Conusel and Attorney for the defence and ample time was given to the Solicitors to prepare the case, the Chief Justice; Sir John Smale, addressed the following letter to the Acting Colonial Secretary :-THE SUPREME COURT, HONGRONG,

"September 12th, 1877. "SIR .- I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Letter No. 660, of the 6th instant, in which you refer to a resolution of the Executive Council of the 30th November, 1872. authorising a fee of $25 to be paid to Counsel for defending prisoners in certain cases; and by direction of His Excellency the Governor, you ask my opinion as to the advisability of allowing -a refresher where a case lasts for more than one day, and my views on the subject.

'The question raises various, and as I think, serious considerations. "In the semi-barbarous ages of our Criminal Law. no accused man was allowed Counsel whilst ingenuity and learning. The State trials, too often most disgraceful, are specimens of what was universal at every Assizes when even sheep stealing and forgery were capital offences, down even to within my memory.

The Turkish irregular troops atment here, which would be highly improper, but tacked the Mentenegrins on the 15th. Indecias a foundation for urging that the State here sive fighting has followed should, on such awful occasions, use the like effort for the elucidation of innocence, as it puts forth, through the leading Counsel and Attorney in the colony, to prove guilt; for the judge to attempt to do so on the trial greatly endangers his equal balance of impartiality. The elucidation of innocence can be effectually attained only by the assigning Counsel and Solicitor for the prisoner, with ample discretion to them. Fortunately, these trials are rare, but when any occasion arises, it is unseally for the Judge to nut himself under obligation to Counsel and Attorney, whilst, it sooms to me to be the duty of the State to secure aneefficient defence, and it should pay for it by a proper fee, and, in pro-tracted cases, not by way of "refresher," but upon a due taxation by the Registrar, of work actually done, subject, as that always is, to the final decision of the Judges, who alone can, even approximately, know what work has been done in

IMPERIAL QUARTO. INGLISH AND CHINES DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN

PRONUNCIATION.

For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have to late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, phetography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are, here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given, the accents being carefully marked on the best rinciple hitherto attained. The typography space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its RIVLEMAN, Brit. bark, Bishop.—Naval Yard. pages enables a person who understands English Rosetta Monsil, American bark, Brown—to communicate effectively with natives who Vocal, Hagenorn & Co. understand nothing but Chinese. Many boxes of letters are received at the Poss Office not sealed, that is to say, the box it fastened with sealing wax, but there is no impression of a seal. The attention of boxholders is called to the necessity of carefully sealing such boxes with some recognisable seal, and of sending a chitbook or receipt with them. The omission of the latter precaution leaves a doubt as to whether the contents of the box ever reached the Post Office: the omission of the former, as to force on the 23rd instant.

Under the old Ordinance no notice was required of the departure of a vessel if not advertised, nor of departures for Canton or Macao. Notice is now required of any departure, though with regard to sailing ships, the old rule will practically remain in force, that notice need not be sent unless asked for. Section XXV. requires that the first notice be, sent to the Post Office.

In the case of steamers plying regularly or on fixed days, notice of any change in the day or hour will be sufficient. Stamped correspondence may still be gent on board any vessel after the Mail is closed at the The Postmaster-General takes this opportunity of calling the attention of firms to the fact that any such words as Despatches will close at 11 A.M. added to the advertisement of a vessel are illegal.
